Primary charity partnerships announced for 2026 Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions

TOURNAMENT PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT NORTH ST. LOUIS AND THE SURROUNDING GREATER ST. LOUIS AREA, INCLUDING 2026 PRIMARY BENEFICIARIES,
ENGINEERS IN HEELS, RECOVET, AND THE CORE COLLECTIVE AT SAINT VINCENT

ST. LOUIS (October 7, 2026) – Tournament officials announced today that three St. Louis non-profit organizations have been designated as the primary charitable beneficiaries of the 2026 Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions per the tournament's new charity selection process.

The sixth playing of the Stifel Charity Classic will allocate net proceeds to benefit Engineers in Heels, RecoVET, and The Core Collective.

The Stifel Charity Classic has established a tradition of giving in the St. Louis region and beyond that will be strengthened by the tournament's new charity model. All selected charities will serve a one-year term with the ability to re-apply after a two-year wait period, allowing the tournament to broaden its philanthropic impact in the community year over year by supporting more nonprofit organizations. Furthermore, identifying those groups that directly support and serve communities within the City of St. Louis, St. Louis County, or St. Charles County, and align with at least one of the Stifel Charity Classic's charitable pillars (initiatives focused on military, youth, and youth financial literacy).

Since its inception in 2020, the Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions has donated more than $4.2 million to support charitable organizations in the St. Louis region and beyond.

The 2026 Stifel Charity Classic will take place the week of October 19–25 at Norwood Hills Country Club.

"At Stifel, we're committed to making a positive impact on our hometown of St. Louis," said Ron Kruszewski, Chairman and CEO of Stifel. "The Stifel Charity Classic is a powerful expression of that commitment, and we're proud that our philanthropic efforts stay right here in North St. Louis and the Greater St. Louis area to support these tremendous organizations that are doing transformative work in the region."

Engineers in Heels is a nonprofit organization committed to creating meaningful access to science, technology, engineering, and mathematics education for underrepresented students and educators. Through hands-on learning, academic enrichment, community programs, and global collaboration, they help participants build skills, gain exposure to new possibilities, and develop the confidence to pursue long-term academic and career opportunities.

RecoVET is a Veterans' Social Service Organization. Its programs are designed specifically for veterans, active-duty military members, and their families. RecoVET is a behavioral health organization providing a full continuum of integrated services to clients with substance use and behavioral disorders. Their goal is to partner with their clients and loved ones so they can lead rewarding prosperous lives that build on their assets, skills, and capabilities.

The Core Collective at Saint Vincent is a thriving community invested in the transformational power of youth. At the Core of everything they do are their values: community, compassion, well-being, trust, and healing. The Core Collective is on a mission to make well-being the standard for St. Louis. They improve healthcare for families, advance socioeconomic equity and activate conscious leaders.

The Stifel Charity Classic proudly stands as a premier playoff event on PGA Tour Champions, but it is much more than a golf tournament. The events and activities associated with the Stifel Charity Classic provide an all-inclusive, entertaining atmosphere. The beautiful views of historic Norwood Hills Country Club serve as a backdrop for world-class golf and provide the perfect venue to mingle with friends, family and business leaders while watching some of golf's greatest champions.

The 2026 PGA Tour Champions regular season features 28 events (25 regular season and three playoff events) and will have players competing for more than $70 million in total prize money, the highest in PGA Tour Champions' 46-season history. This year's Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, a season-ending, three-tournament series to determine the Tour's season-long champion, will mark the 10th year for the PGA Tour Champions culminating series. The sixth annual Stifel Charity Classic will be the first playoff event. Past Charles Schwab Cup champions include World Golf Hall of Fame members Bernhard Langer (6), Missouri natives Tom Watson (2) and Hale Irwin (2), and 2025 champion Stewart Cink.

The 2026 Stifel Charity Classic is October 19-25 at Norwood Hills Country Club.
