Charity Putting Challenge presented by Compliance Solutions shines bright light on tournament's philanthropic impact

SPECIAL EVENTS AND FAN DESTINATIONS HIGHLIGHT EXCITING WEEK AT THE 2026 STIFEL CHARITY CLASSIC PRESENTED BY COMPLIANCE SOLUTIONS

ST. LOUIS (October 16, 2026) – Tournament officials announced today the details surrounding the fifth annual Charity Putting Challenge presented by Compliance Solutions. The special event provides an opportunity for the Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions to expand its philanthropic impact. To that end, the 2026 Putting Challenge will benefit 12 local St. Louis charitable organizations.

Each charitable organization will be selected by a participating sponsor and receive an investment of $5,000 on behalf of their supporting benefactor.

The 12 Charity Putting Challenge teams will each consist of one PGA Tour Champions professional, one charity representative, and one junior/youth player associated with the charity competitor. The teams will compete in a scramble-format putting match over a specially designed nine-hole miniature golf course. The group with the lowest gross score will take home an additional $4,000 for that team's charity. The second-place charity will receive a $2,500 bonus, and third place will take home an extra $1,750.

The Charity Putting Challenge is Tuesday, October 20, 2026, from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. on the putting green at Norwood Hills.

Area charities with teams committed to participate currently are: Disabled Athlete Sports Association, Eta Boulé, Good Shepherd Children & Family Services, Joyce Meyer Ministries, Lafayette Industries, Lift for Life Gym, Marygrove, Operation Food Search, Ranken Jordan Pediatric Bridge Hospital, Ronald McDonald House Charities St. Louis, St. Ann Catholic Church, and The Core Collective.

In addition to the Charity Putting Challenge presented by Compliance Solutions, fans will also be treated to a full slate of events and activities taking place at the Stifel Charity Classic through Sunday's final round.

Gates open to the public starting Thursday at the Stifel Charity Classic, featuring the tournament's Official Pro-Am presented by the Missouri Division of Tourism.

On Friday, October 23, the tournament will celebrate Folds of Honor Friday presented by Compliance Solutions. The third-year event brings the National Anthem to golf and recognizes the commitment and sacrifice of military service members and first responders who guard our freedoms and protect our communities. It is an inspiring experience for fans, players, caddies, sponsors, volunteers and tournament staff to engage on-site through a shared connection and appreciation of those heroes who preserve our freedoms and protect our families. Friday begins with the start of competition at the Stifel Charity Classic and the tournament's official Opening Ceremony presented by Prairie Farms. Fans will witness a ceremonial first tee shot as well as a performance of the National Anthem and Presentation of Colors. All are encouraged to wear red, white and blue on Friday as an outward display of unity and an inward commitment to meeting sacrifice with hope for the families of America's fallen or disabled military and first responders. Additionally, official Folds of Honor ribbon pins will be proudly distributed and displayed throughout the inspirational day.

Friday also features the beginning of the tournament's Putt for Charity presented by Midwest BankCentre. Fans can putt on the Norwood Hills putting green Friday through Sunday for a chance to win $10,000 and benefit the Community Impact Foundation. The cost is $10 for three putts with all money going to charity. Participants will win daily prizes and a chance to come back on Sunday to capture the ultimate cash prize victory.

The second round of competition on Saturday concludes with a celebration of music at the Stifel Charity Classic, featuring Gin Bossoms at the Community Concert presented by presented by CarShield, held on Hole No. 18 of the East Course at Norwood Hills Country Club. Access to the concert requires the purchase of a valid Saturday tournament ticket, or a weekly ticket option.

Sunday is championship day at the Stifel Charity Classic, featuring the final round of tournament competition and the trophy presentation. The Closing Ceremony celebrates the end of a wonderful week with speeches from the winner, as well as the tournament's title sponsor, and—of course—the new Stifel Charity Classic trophy being officially awarded to the tournament's sixth champion.

The Closing Ceremony and trophy presentation will be held immediately following the conclusion of the third round of competition on the 18th green.

There's something for everyone at the Stifel Charity Classic thanks to the tournament's Fan Destinations, all open to the public, ranging from enjoyable ways to view the competition—to fun for the kids—to food trucks. See below for the full list.
