Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions offers complimentary admission to United States Armed Forces, Veterans and First Responders

FOLDS OF HONOR FRIDAY RETURNS TO THE STIFEL CHARITY CLASSIC

ST. LOUIS (August 13, 2025) – Tournament Officials announced today that complimentary admission to the 2025 Stifel Charity Classic is available to members of the United States Armed Forces (Active Duty, National Guard, Reserve, and Retirees), veterans and First Responders.

Below are the available U.S. Armed Forces, Veteran and First Responder ticket options. For tickets and additional information visit: <https://stifelcc.spinzo.com/?group=military-and-first-responders>.

Active Duty, National Guard, Military Reserve Service Members, Military Retirees and Military Veterans, and First Responders receive two complimentary tickets for each day of the tournament, Thursday–Sunday.

Please note that a valid Department of Defense issued ID or photo ID must be provided along with a Military ticket voucher. This special offer extends to family members and dependents to attend as guests of approved Active Duty, National Guard, Military Reserve Service Members, Military Retirees and Military Veterans. Please note that fans 16 and under are admitted free of charge with a ticketed adult.

In related news, the Stifel Charity Classic announced today the details surrounding the return of Folds of Honor Friday. The second-year program, that is celebrated on Fridays at about 50 tournaments on the PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions and Korn Ferry Tour.

Folds of Honor Friday brings the National Anthem to golf and recognizes the commitment and sacrifice of military service members and first responders who guard our freedoms and protect our communities. It is an inspiring experience for fans, players, caddies, sponsors, volunteers, and tournament staff to engage on-site through a shared connection and appreciation of those heroes who preserve our freedoms and protect our families.

At the Stifel Charity Classic, all are encouraged to wear red, white and blue on Friday as an outward display of unity and an inward commitment to meeting sacrifice with hope for the families of America's fallen or disabled military and first responders.

Additional programming for Folds of Honor Friday includes an enhanced Opening Ceremony with a performance of the National Anthem and Presentation of Colors, as well as official Folds of Honor ribbon pins that will be proudly distributed and displayed throughout the inspirational day.

As a result of the Stifel Charity Classic's inclusion in Folds of Honor Friday, 13 individuals in North County and the greater St. Louis region will receive academic scholarships on behalf of the tournament.

“Folds of Honor Friday is a perfect complement to the military initiatives here at the Stifel Charity Classic,” said Alonzo Byrd, the tournament’s director of business development and community engagement. “The program provides increased opportunities for the tournament and our fans to celebrate America and support those that serve, and it is an honor to shine a spotlight on the incredible impact that Folds of Honor has generated for the families of fallen or disabled military service members and first responders.”

Folds of Honor was founded by Lt Col Dan Rooney, history’s only F-16 fighter pilot to also become a PGA of America Golf Professional. Folds of Honor provides educational scholarships to the children and spouses of fallen or disabled military service members and first responders. Since its inception in 2007, it has awarded nearly 62,000 academic scholarships valued at almost $300 million. In Missouri, 267 recipients received awards for the 2024-25 academic cycle, equaling more than $1.25 million in local impact, while 149 qualified applicants did not receive full funding. The need remains great. For the current academic year, Folds of Honor awarded a record 10,000 scholarships. However, about 7,000 fully-qualified applicants did not receive full-funding due to a lack of resources.

The Stifel Challenge presented by Compliance Solutions is the week of September 1-7 at Norwood Hills Hills Country Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

Tickets for the Stifel Charity Classic can be purchased by visiting the tournament website (stifelcharityclassic.com). The Stifel Charity Classic is open to spectators from Thursday (September 4) to Sunday (September 7) and ticket prices start at $20. Children 16 and under receive free grounds access with a ticketed adult. For a complete listing of ticket options please CLICK HERE.

The Stifel Charity Classic is a Regular Season PGA TOUR Champions event in 2025, which will give way to the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs—a season-ending, three-tournament series used to determine the TOUR’s season-long champion. The 2025 PGA TOUR Champions schedule features 28 events and will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Phoenix, Arizona. The 2025 Season will have players competing for more than $69 million in total prize money, the highest in PGA TOUR Champions’ 45-season history.

All three rounds of Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions will be broadcast on Golf Channel.

Since its inception in 2020, the tournament has generated more than $3.4 million in giving for charitable organizations.
