PRIMARY CHARITY PARTNERSHIPS ANNOUNCED FOR STIFEL CHARITY CLASSIC PRESENTED BY COMPLIANCE SOLUTIONS

Tournament proceeds to benefit North St. Louis County and the surrounding Greater St. Louis area, including 2025 primary beneficiaries, Boys & Girls Club of Greater St. Louis, Marygrove, RecoVET, and Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (July 31, 2025) – Tournament officials announced today that four St. Louis non-profit organizations have been designated as the primary charitable beneficiaries of the 2025 Stifel Charity Classic presented by Compliance Solutions.

The fifth playing of the official PGA TOUR Champions event will focus on building the tournament's established legacy of giving in North St. Louis County and the surrounding Greater St. Louis area by designating net proceeds from this year's Stifel Charity Classic to benefit Boys & Girls Club of Greater St. Louis (BGCSTL), Marygrove, RecoVET, and Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis.

Since its inception in 2020, the tournament has generated more than $3.4 million in giving for charitable organizations.

The 2025 Stifel Charity Classic will take place the week of September 1–7 at Norwood Hills Country Club.

"At Stifel, we're committed to making a positive impact on our hometown of St. Louis," said Ron Kruszewski, Chairman and CEO of Stifel. "The Stifel Charity Classic is a powerful expression of that commitment, and we are proud to support these tremendous organizations that are doing transformative work across North St. Louis County and the Greater St. Louis area, and in typical Stifel fashion, we're going to have some fun doing it."

The mission of the BGCSTL is to inspire and enable all young people, especially those who need BGCSTL most, to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens. BGCSTL provides after-school, teen, sports and summer programs to youth across the Bi-State Region while also providing a safe place for them to learn and grow. The Clubs serve youth across Missouri & Illinois, including (Adams Park Club, Bethalto Club, Hazelwood Elementary School Club, Herbert Hoover Club, Mathews-Dickey Club, and the Teen Center of Excellence). They also operate the Mentor St. Louis and St. Louis Internship programs.

"Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis is honored and deeply grateful to be a beneficiary of this great event," said club president Brandon Williams. "This generous donation will play a crucial role in empowering our youth, enabling us to deliver impactful programs that cultivate future-ready adults and fortify our community for years to come."

Marygrove provides a safe home, compassionate care, and high-quality mental health services to children and youth who have experienced significant trauma, to restore their childhood and equip them for productive adulthood.

“Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of St. Louis is incredibly honored that its ministry, Marygrove, has been chosen as a charity partner of the Stifel Charity Classic this September,” said Dr. Jared Bryson, President and CEO. “This generous support is more than a gift; it’s an investment in the children, youth, and families we serve each day.” Kathy Fowler, executive director of Marygrove, added, “With Stifel’s support, we can continue providing safe homes, compassionate care, and life-changing opportunities for those who need them most. Together, we’re helping to build a stronger, more hopeful future for generations to come.”

RecoVET is a Veterans' Social Service Organization. Its programs are designed specifically for veterans, active-duty military members, and their families. RecoVET is a behavioral health organization providing a full continuum of integrated services to clients with substance use and behavioral disorders. Their goal is to partner with their clients and loved ones so they can lead rewarding prosperous lives that build on their assets, skills, and capabilities.

“Being part of the Stifel Charity Classic is more than just supporting a great event—it’s about standing with a community that believes in giving back,” said Suneal Menzies, chief operating officer. “At RecoVET, we are proud to align with a cause that uplifts veterans and strengthens local impact. It’s an honor to contribute to something that echoes our mission of recovery, resilience, and service.”

The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis envisions a region where all people are valued members of the community, can adequately support themselves and their families, can live in neighborhoods that are vibrant and thriving, and share in the region’s prosperity and well-being. The Urban League advocates for and empowers African Americans and others in Metropolitan St. Louis by pursuing economic opportunity, educational excellence, community empowerment, and civil rights and advocacy.

“The Urban League is incredibly grateful to Stifel for their support of our programs and services, especially at this critical time following the tragic tornadoes,” said Michael P. McMillan, president and CEO. “Being a part of the Stifel Charity Classic is truly a blessing, and it will help thousands of our neighbors who are in need.”

The Stifel Charity Classic is a Regular Season PGA TOUR Champions event in 2025, which will give way to the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs—a season-ending, three-tournament series used to determine the TOUR’s season-long champion. The 2025 PGA TOUR Champions schedule features 28 events and will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Phoenix, Arizona. The 2025 Season will have players competing for more than $69 million in total prize money, the highest in PGA TOUR Champions’ 45-season history.

All three rounds of Stifel Charity Classic will be broadcast on Golf Channel.
